CENT-A-QUART
MILK BOOST
IS ORDEREDOPA Action Effective At Once: Butter, Cheese
Increases Due

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 7 — The OPA today ordered an immediate cent-a-quart increase in milk prices for most of the nation.

The boost is the first of a series for dairy products which Stabilization Director Chester Bowles calculates will add $250,000,000 annually to housewives' food bills.

Bowles directed the price hikes last week, saying they were necessary because of the higher prices farmers are paying for dairy feed and because of "apparent congressional determination to slash food subsidies."

Butter, Cheese Next

In addition to the milk price hike, Bowles authorized increases of about 11 cents a pound for butter, and about six cents for cheddar cheese. OPA expects to put these into effect next week.

Bowles has predicted further "sharp" rises for dairy products if congress finally slashes funds for food subsidies.

In carrying out Bowles' instructions on milk the OPA also ordered these other price hikes in the areas affected:

For coffee cream and all other cream containing at least 16 percent butter fat, one cent a half pint; half pints of milk, one-half cent a half pint in sales of two bottles.

Skin milk, buttermilk, chocolate milk and other flavored drinks, one half cent a quart; "half and half"—half cream and half milk—one-half cent a half pint in sales of two bottles.

In single bottle sales for all of these items, in cases where ceilings figure out at a half cent per bottle, prices may be rounded to next highest cent, OPA said.

Affect On Producers

For producers, the increase amounts to 40 cents per hundred-weight of milk, 10½ cents per pound of butter fat, or four cents per gallon.

Areas not included in the 40-cent per hundredweight increase granted to producers and the one cent a quart increase at retail are:

1. Federal marketing areas where milk prices are under jurisdiction of the agriculture department.

OPA said that in some of them increases already have been put into effect. The agency added that in the others "they will be made as soon as prices which may be paid to producers are adjusted to higher levels."

2. Neighboring areas where OPA places price ceilings on those existing in federal marketing areas. Prices will go up in those areas when the Agriculture department boosts ceilings there.

Boy, 18, Gets License
To Wed. Widow, 78

LOUISA, Ky., June 7—Delbert (Shorty) Sprouse, 18, bearing the written consent of his parents, obtained a license today to marry 78-year-old Mrs. Mattie Lyons Large, but immediately ran into another delay in his plans to wed the elderly widow.

The youth said he was having difficulty finding a minister who would consent to marry them and there would be a delay until tomorrow in the wedding. He added that if no minister could be obtained to perform the ceremony, he would find a magistrate "to say the words."

Mrs. Large did not appear at the license clerk's office with Sprouse today.

A widow for 17 years, Mrs. Large has seven living children and 49 grandchildren, the youngest of whom is the same age as her husband-to-be.

WASHINGTON, June 7 — The threatening maritime strike situation was considered today by President Truman and his cabinet. Reconversion Director John W. Snyder was reported to have termed the outlook "pretty bad."

Attorney General Tom Clark told reporters Snyder used those words during the hour-long cabinet session.

The White House gathering coincided with a war-council meeting of top men in the CIO's powerful national maritime union.

Filter Back To Jobs

As AFL seamen filtered back to their ships still talking of expanding their sample tie-up into a full dress walkout, members of the NMU's national council from 40 ports convened for a strike strategy session here.

They possess a $1,000,000 strike chest and the support of six other unions allied in the Committee for Maritime Unity (CMU).

Nearly 48 hours had passed since the last word of progress from the conciliation conference on which the government is pinning its hopes to stave off CMU's scheduled strike eight days hence.

It began to look like deadlock.

Reminders of the bitter, sometimes violent rivalry between CIO and AFL for control of the waterfront surged up in the wake of AFL's stop-work meetings in 30 cities yesterday.

Patrol Will Graduate
29 At Columbus Tuesday

COLUMBUS, June 7 — A class of 29 returned servicemen will be graduated Tuesday from an 11-week training course into the state highway patrol, Col. George Mingle, patrol superintendent, announced today.

After Tuesday's ceremony, the patrol will have 267 of 400 men it wants as quickly as possible, Mingle said. On March 14 the first school since 1943 graduated 27 men into the patrol, and 40 are enrolled in the course which begins later this month.

One graduate will not receive his diploma with the others Tuesday—Duane R. Kinsey, 30, of Uhlrichsville. Kinsey broke a leg in a fall during training at the patrol school a few miles south of here on Route 23. His sheepskin will be presented, however, at Mt. Carmel hospital, and a desk job is arranged for him at New Philadelphia headquarters as soon as he's able to go on active duty, Mingle said.

After their marriage in Italy, her husband, ex-GI Francis Loughrey, was unable to get her into the U. S. through regular channels. House Calls Up Bill To Pay
GI's For Unused Furloughs

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON, June 7 — The house, with manifest enthusiasm, today called up legislation to pay some 15,000,000 past and present servicemen an average of $250 each to cover furlough time missed in uniform.

Those who will confer with him on problems immediately confronting the state," are House Speaker Jackson S. Betts and Floor Leader Robert Shaw, Sen. Frank E. Whittier of Summit, president pro tempore of the senate and Republican majority leader, Senate Minority Leader Maurice Lipscher of Mahoning, Finance Committee Chairman Rep. Paul Ballard of Jackson and Senator Albert Daniels of Highland, and House Democrats John J. Babka of Cuyahoga, and John F. Cantwell of Mahoning.

Draft of Program

The legislative program of the AMVETS as submitted by Fred J. Milligan, new state commander, and other officers included a separate state department of veteran affairs; mandatory appointment of a veteran representative by county veterans relief commissions; state department of education supervision of all veterans relief commissions; state department of education supervision of all veterans seeking education under the GI Bill of Rights;

Establishment of a veterans vocational school and recreation home at Lake Home in Vinton county; establishment of a college loan fund for all Ohio's 48 colleges and universities to make loans to veterans against receipt of their federal government subsidy checks; establishment of housing facilities at the state universities for married veterans families; an appropriation to cover cost of compilation of the service records of all Ohio soldiers in World War II, and the setting aside of club liquor permits for AMVET clubs.

The AMVETS made no specific bonus recommendation other than directing their state organization to make a study of a possible bonus probably will result in numerous claims for the maximum of 120 days pay.

4. Direct payments to next of kin in cases of men who have died.

5. Exempt the payments from taxes and from all claims of creditors.

6. Prohibit the payment of cash in lieu of furlough time for all personnel, both officers and enlisted men, in future wars or national emergencies.

Started In Congress

The legislation grew out of congressional demands that enlisted personnel be given the same privileges as officers in accumulating leave, or furlough time.

Heretofore, enlisted men have been unable to carry over unused furlough time from year to year, whereas officers could accumulate it up to the four months maximum and be paid for the unused leave upon their separation from the service.

On the assumption that each of 15,000,000 men and women would receive an average of $250, the legislation would cost $3,750,000,000 for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps and the Coast Guard.

Car Stolen From Garage
Parking Lot Thursday

Police and state highway patrolmen today are searching for a towed 1941 Oldsmobile sedan which was stolen from its parking place near the Zimmerman garage, N. Lundy ave., at about 11 a.m. yesterday.

Clifford Zimmerman, proprietor of the garage, reported the theft to city police yesterday afternoon.

The car had been used as an errand vehicle and had been missing since 11 a.m. Zimmerman said, but at first it was believed that one of the employees was using it.

Plans for the pool, which is a gift from Owen Lewis, president of the Alliance Manufacturing Co., already have been drawn and construction will begin soon.

House Calls Up Bill To Pay
GI's For Unused Furloughs

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON, June 7—The house, with manifest enthusiasm, today called up legislation to pay some 15,000,000 past and present servicemen an average of $250 each to cover furlough time missed in uniform.

It's backers, led by Rep. Dwight L. Rogers (D-Fla.) and Robert L. Sikes (D-Fla.), predicted its passage without opposition after a few hours of debate and said the chances for early senate approval "look good."

The only amendment in sight was a non-controversial one intended to simplify payment methods. In preliminary form it would permit enlisted men entitled to terminal furlough money to claim it by mail, or collect it in cash at local army or navy offices.

Provisions Listed

Here's what the legislation will do if it becomes law:

1. Entitles enlisted personnel to a cash payment for furlough time not used up in service. Payment would be made at the time of discharge for those still in uniform, or immediately for those already back in civies. It applies to personnel who have served at any time since Sept. 8, 1939.

2. Complete furlough time on the basis of two and one-half days for each month of service with a limit of 120 days that may be accrued. However, furlough time used up while in service first would have to be deducted.

3. Authorizes the secretaries of the War and Navy departments to make the payments "on the basis of sworn statements" by the applicants. This provision, military committee members said privately, probably will result in numerous claims for the maximum of 120 days pay.

4. Direct payments to next of kin in cases of men who have died.

5. Exempt the payments from taxes and from all claims of creditors.

6. Prohibit the payment of cash in lieu of furlough time for all personnel, both officers and enlisted men, in future wars or national emergencies.

Started In Congress

The legislation grew out of congressional demands that enlisted personnel be given the same privileges as officers in accumulating leave or furlough time.

Hitherto, enlisted men have been unable to carry over unused furlough time from year to year, whereas officers could accumulate it up to the four months maximum and be paid for the unused leave upon their separation from the service.

Patrol Will Graduate

COLUMBUS, June 7—A class of 29 returned servicemen will be graduated Tuesday from an 11-week training course into the state highway patrol, Col. George Minge, patrol superintendent, announced today.

After Tuesday's ceremony, the class will have 267 of 400 men it wants as quickly as possible, Minge said. On March 14 the first school since 1943 graduated 27 men into the patrol, and 40 are enrolled in the course which begins later this month.

More Experience

Chicago's La Salle hotel fire will add something to the experience which teaches fire prevention experts and hotel architects how to make these buildings safe for their occupants.

The Cook county coroner's decision to conduct an inquest with other hotel managers and engineers as jurymen should help to reveal whatever oversight made the disaster possible. The fact is that any major fire in any modern hotel is not a foreseen disaster, but the consequence of error.

The buildings are made as nearly fool-proof as their designers can make them and kept as nearly fool-proof as their operators and fire departments can keep them. But there still is a lot to learn. The evidence in the La Salle fire, for example, points to the possibility that fireproof construction has not eliminated the extreme hazard of smoke generated by combustion of contents. Modern hotels built and operated according to the highest safety standards no longer burn down, but their contents still may burn up, creating sufficient heat and smoke to constitute a major disaster.

The next great advance in safety may be made through developments and application of nonflammable furnishings. The La Salle disaster will be a powerful incentive to find an answer for the problem it has posed for fire prevention experts.

If Roosevelt Were Alive

The great indoor sport of telling the gullible what some favorite figure of the past would say or do if alive is being taken up at the expense of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Labor union spokesmen, among others, are beginning to tell us what Franklin D. Roosevelt would have said and done. They are saying that Harry Truman has turned traitor to the Roosevelt philosophy by asking for authority to do something about strikes, except appease union executives with government-made contracts at public expense.

Mr. Roosevelt on one occasion asked for authority to draft strikers (coal miners) into the armed forces. In his annual message in January, 1944, he asked for a national service law to prevent strikes. In his annual message in January, 1945, he repeated the same request. His grounds were at least as tenable as those of Mr. Truman, a fact which Mr. Truman knows.

Mr. Roosevelt did not get what he asked for, because Congress wouldn't give it to him. Mr. Truman is not going to get everything he asked for, either, though Congress is more inclined now than it was at any time during Mr. Roosevelt's years in office to concede that union executives are capable of abusing their power.

An American Foreign Legion

The secretary of war's report on declining enlistments, which were expected to total only 40,000 in May, compared with 185,000 last November, gives added interest to a proposal by Representative A. E. O'Konski of Michigan. He would resolve the military manpower issue by creating an American foreign legion composed of European soldiers who fought with the Allies but are afraid to go home. Their principal reason is the fact that Russia has blacklisted them. They are Poles, Serbs, Estonians, Latvians, Lithuanians and a sprinkling of others—at least half a million of them, Representative O'Konski estimates. The Polish army stranded in Italy has more than 100,000 members alone.

These men, the Michigan representative argues, would be happy to find a way out of their dilemma as exiles. They are potentially as serviceable a military force for the United States as the French Foreign Legion was for France. For them, the military responsibility which native Americans seem reluctant to accept would be a privilege, because they have nothing else to do. Representative O'Konski apparently makes his proposal in good faith, but could be forgiven if he had made it with tongue in cheek—as a satirical observation on America's willingness to perform its own military commitments.

Consumer Acceptance Rating

Probably nothing is so futile as trying to guess at European political opinion on the flimsy evidence of elections, but at least one guess seems to have been confirmed by the voting in France and Italy.

The political organizations in those countries calling themselves Communists are having trouble selling their programs. Their consumer acceptance rating, high during and just after the war, is declining. They do not stand competition well.

Communism, as it shapes up in Europe and the United States, is not adapted to the give-and-take of competition for popular support. It is by its own nature a proposal for political monopoly—one-party government—with no provision for dissent from its orthodox Marxism.

The Communists themselves readily acknowledge that the ideal environment for their ideology is chaos, with the opportunity to catch population on the rebound and discipline them under authoritarian government. They hoped to catch Europe on the rebound, but apparently the chaos was not as complete as they thought it was going to be. The Communists are strong, but as the wartime confusion recedes they do not seem to be growing stronger. On the contrary, as competing ideas and parties emerge, they seem to be growing comparatively weaker.

Sincere Flattery

The Allied Military Government in Germany has been stupid, it seems to us, in ordering the destruction of all "anti-democratic, military or Nazi" books and other writings.

In the first place, it is an immense task almost impossible of accomplishment. Secondly, it is bound to set up a familiar human reaction memorably illustrated in this country by the prohibition law. Nothing could be more calculated to focus attention on such literature, to encourage hiding, re-reading, and smuggling circulation than this ban.

Lastly, of course, it pays Adolf Hitler the sincere flattery of imitation. The whole German population can be counted on to gloat over this and make the most of it. And well they might. For book-burning, whether done by Hitler or the AMG, carries the inescapable implication that the burner has so little faith in what he is selling that he must destroy his competition before he can hope to have his product accepted.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, June 8

AN unpredictable state of affairs materializes, according to the lunar and mutual aspects of major planets, under which rule it might be well to "expect the unexpected." Mighty and startling events and situations are likely to be suddenly precipitated with whirlwind force and perhaps sensational climax.

A dramatic and unplanned move, change, journey may be an amazing crisis promoting the best, most progressive and lucrative ventures, in which the personal, professional and financial interests are advanced. But use subtlety, finesse, where possible, placating opposition or mayhap secret machinations. Start new things.

It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is might well wait with baited breath to see what unpredictable and unpremeditated event may swoop down with startling force, uprooting, reversing, and precipitating radical change, of long-range consequence on the life and its destiny.

All aspects, interests and phases of life are involved, and should strange or startling undercurrents arise treat them with finesse, tact and clever strategies. Excellent results come from exceptional management.

A child born on this day may have strange, unorthodox or unique talents and ideas, which may bring it an adventurous career, with romance and sensational experiences.

Perhaps lessened appetite and less physical work call for a reduction in such foods as sugars, starches, such as bread and cereals, and fats, but protein foods such as meat, milk and eggs, as well as all of the vitamins and minerals, must be supplied in adequate amounts.

As persons grow older, the arteries may harden, which means that calcium or lime salts are deposited in their walls. Now it is known that milk is a good source of calcium. Hence, sometimes older people begin to think that milk is not necessary for them and even inadvisable, but studies have shown that the calcium requirements of older persons are not less than those of any adult.

In fact, in old age there may be a loss of calcium from the bones so that an increased calcium intake is necessary.

If the elderly would get the most out of life they should fit what they do with their abilities; they should live within their limitations. They must go slow on strenuous physical effort but there need be no rationing of some of the best things of life, humor, which experience and long-looking at the pageant of life engenders wisdom, and kindness.

Armoured in a happy philosophy, protected as to health by regular medical supervision, surrounded by children and friends, oldsters can find in the declining years as much enjoyment as at any other period and sometimes even more.

TOKYO, June 6.—The rising sun each morning launches Tokyo's furosho (clothing wave) of men, women and children of near deport. They are without work, food or homes.

In this city of 3,700,000, the size of furosho as estimated by Police Inspector Motchige Sakurai, is about 700 persons, surprisingly small.

The furosho washes toward Ueno park, which is comparable roughly to New York's Central park or San Francisco's Golden Gate park. Japanese police occasionally raid furosho. In one three-day raid in April they took into custody 463 persons, including 176 children under 13 years of age.

Most elements of the furosho sleep in parks, railway stations, subway depots and ruined buildings. They try to work days. These anchorless vagabonds shun shoes, sell newspapers, do manual labor for occupation forces or assist black market operators. Some beg.

There is hope for those who work," said Sakurai. "For those who like their undisciplined life, there is no hope."

Furosho is not a menace, although these drifting people are claimed for some of Tokyo's increase in petty crimes.

Sakurai said there is a "great change" in the moral fiber of many Japanese — slow crumbling of their regard for the personal property and belongings of others. He cited increased purse-snatching and petty thefts.

Police graphs report furosho is made up of war victims, those who lost their possessions in fire raids, 50 per cent; demobilized soldiers returned to a nation that neither receives them kindly nor aids them noticeably, 20 per cent; war orphans, 20 per cent; repatriates, 5 per cent, and other unfortunates, 5 per cent.

Sakurai said the children, even the orphans, hold no resentment against Americans. "There are no wolves in Japan."

About Town*Claims Air Forces Need Super-Speed Wind Tunnel

WASHINGTON, June 7—Brig. Gen. Lawrence C. Craigie said today the army air forces wants to build some wind tunnels in which it could test speeds ranging up to 7,600 miles an hour.

He stopped short of disclosing what weapons, missiles or craft might be subjected to such air speeds—ten times the speed of sound.

Craigie appeared before a senate interstate commerce subcommittee. He urged that a permanent national air policy be established.

He said this country must spend $250,000,000 annually for research and development if it expects to maintain its wartime air supremacy.

General Craigie later explained that the super-speed wind tunnels are needed to test materials for both piloted and pilotless guided missiles. He said the German V-2 bombs "approached speeds of 3,000 miles an hour."

Touring motorists spend 19 cents of their dollar for gasoline and other transportation needs, according to the National Association of Travel officials.

Marriages Still Ahead Of Divorce Actions

LISBON, June 7—Despite the increasing number of divorce actions being filed in the courts, marriage licenses issued in May totaled 131 and more than doubled the 62 divorce actions filed.

Marriage licenses issued in the probate court show a slight drop as records show 137 issued in April, but court attaches state both months have really been setting the pace for June the "month of brides."

Divorce actions however, continue to constitute the greater part of the new cases filed in the office of Clerk of Courts John W. Colman, with 62 such actions listed out of 81 brought during May.

Says Wife Intended
To Drive Him Crazy,
Take Over Property

CLEVELAND, June 7.—George Pauer, 42, testified in his wife's divorce suit today that she had "diabolically schemed" to drive him insane and take over his $160,000 real estate property.

A graduate of Western Reserve university school of pharmacy, Pauer charged in his cross petition for divorce that his wife, Mary, 49, slipped letters under his bedroom door reading "Think, think, think."

Others saying "Remember, remember, remember" followed, and similar inscriptions were placed on his bedroom walls, he said.

At other times, he testified, she "tortured" him by constantly chanting late into the night.

Mrs. Pauer charged in her petition that her husband was cruel, drank excessively and abused her even after she nursed him back from ill health allegedly caused by intemperate habits.

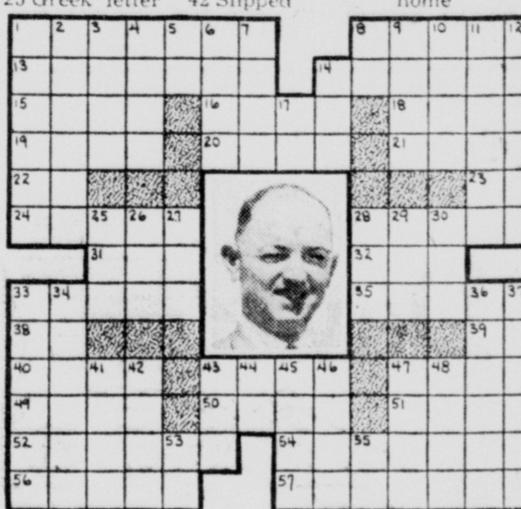

Pauer declared he met her through an ad in the paper which he said, represented her as a 38-year-old widow seeking employment as a housekeeper. They were married Aug. 22, 1941.

Common Pleas Judge Samuel H. Silbert ordered a recess to allow counsel for Pauer to summon additional witnesses.

Say Livestock Producers Are Withholding Cattle

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Agriculture department reported today many livestock producers appeared to be withholding cattle from slaughter markets pending clarification of the outlook on price controls on meats.

A senate committee considering legislation to extend price control has voted to take ceilings off livestock and poultry products June 30.

The department said marketings of cattle during the past week at the nation's 12 principal markets were the smallest of the year. They were down nearly a fourth from the previous week. At Kansas City, receipts were the smallest in many years.

Says Wife Intended
To Drive Him Crazy,
Take Over Property

CLEVELAND, June 7.—George Pauer, 42, testified in his wife's divorce suit today that she had "diabolically schemed" to drive him insane and take over his $100,000 real estate property.

A graduate of Western Reserve university school of pharmacy, Pauer charged in his cross petition for divorce that his wife, Mary, 49, slipped letters under his bedroom door reading "Think, think, think."

Others saying "Remember, remember, remember" followed, and similar inscriptions were placed on his bedroom walls, he said.

At other times, he testified, she "tortured" him by constantly chanting late into the night.

Mrs. Pauer charged in her petition that her husband was cruel, drank excessively and abused her even after she nursed him back from ill health allegedly caused by temperate habits.

Pauer declared he met her through an ad in the paper which he said, represented her as a 38-year-old widow seeking employment as a housekeeper. They were married Aug. 22, 1941.

Common Pleas Judge Samuel H. Silbert ordered a recess to allow counsel for Pauer to summon additional witnesses.

altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. They met the groom and his best man, Lynn Ripley, of Leetonia at the altar.

Attractively Gowned

The bride was charming in a gown of white nylon with finger-veil of illusion. The fitted bodice of her gown had a drop shoulder neckline with net yolk and covered button down the back. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses with white orchid center. For the traditional "something old," she carried the handkerchief carried by her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Floding, her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Heck and her mother at their weddings.

Mrs. Sahli was gowned in a blue net gown over taffeta with elbow-length pink gloves. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and lilies of the valley tied with pink satin ribbon. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in pink net with blue elbow-length gloves and carried bouquets of pink roses and lilies of the valley tied with blue satin ribbons.

A reception was held at the bride's home for the immediate families and friends.

Mrs. Varner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Spatholt. She is a graduate of Leetonia High School, and attended Pittsburgh School of Art and Westminster College.

Rev. T. P. Laughner, the pastor, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The nuptial music was played by Miss Margaret Rankin, a classmate of the bride at Leetonia High school and three vocal solos were sung by Miss DeErla Smith. Miss Rankin also played the traditional wedding marches.

Robert Spatholt, brother of the bride and Clarence Barger, of Youngstown, ushered.

Mrs. Harvard Sahli, of North Lima, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Mary Louise Heck of North Lima, cousin of the bride and Miss Sue Tobey, of Forest Hills, L. I., classmate of the bride at Westminster college, were bridesmaids.

RUNAWAY CONTESTS IN CLIPPER LOOP

Boosters, Farmers Fall In Pair of One-Sided Contests At Park

Two runaway ball games featured play in the Firestone City league in Columbian yesterday as Coppers pouted it on the Boosters, 20-9, and Lehman's whipped the Farmers, 27-4.

Bill Dickens' hard hitting, good for four in five trips led the all-veteran Coppers outfit. Bill Hollinger clubbed out a triple for the longest blow of the game.

"Lefty" McKenzie hurled for the Coppers nine and Hollinger was behind the plate. The Boosters used Freeman Tyson to start, relieved by Joe Keck in the second and John Cabas in the later innings. Harry McBride was behind the plate.

Bob Antram tossed them for Lehman's with Jim Mollenkopf behind the plate. Jim Magill and Earl Correy formed the Farmer battery.

Wayne Urschler's home run, the first of the season, featured the 27-run Lehman spree.

Conn Hits Peak

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. J., June 7—With his heavyweight fight against Joe Louis still two weeks away, Challenger Billy Conn has hit his training peak but expects to keep right on working until the day before the battle.

Conn boxed six more rounds here yesterday, running his training total to 223 frames, but Manager Johnny Ray sent out a call for fresh sparring mates, indicating he doesn't plan to let the challenger relax.

Pitcher To Opera

ATHENS, Ga.—From slinging a mean fast ball for the Georgia baseball team to singing the leading role in an operetta is quite a jump, but Jim Griffith is making it. Griffith, undefeated in five starts, will play the role of Lt.-Gov. Grandet in "Naughty Malletta." The Bulldogs won 15 of their first 20 games, are unbeaten in six conference engagements.

Dodgers To Battle Autos Here Tomorrow

Salem's Althouse Dodgers will meet the Youngstown Century Autos at Centennial park at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Salem, fresh from a 10-8 win over the McKelvey squad from Youngstown, will be seeking its fifth win in a row against no losses.

The Youngstown club is at present in third place in the double A league in the Mahoning Valley city.

Goodrich, Grady's Win 'B' Contests

Goodrich edged the Little Gems, 7-6, in 10 innings and Grady's outslugged the Theaters, 14-13, in Class B tilts last night on the field adjoining Reilly stadium.

Pete Cain went the complete route for Goodrich, allowing 10 hits, striking out 11 and walking four while Ciotti twirled creditably for the losers as he permitted 12 hits, fanned six and passed only one batter.

"Mo" Mercer's 10th inning double, which went through Ray Snyder, Gehrig center fielder, accounted for the winning run.

"Butch" Roth and "Gab" Ritchey of the Gems had two safeties each while Virg Kelley, Walt Ehrhart, Dick Tolson and Guler duplicated the feat for the winners.

Bruderly Hits Homer

Second Baseman Ben Bruderly was slugging king for the evening as Grady's copped a see-saw struggle from the Theaters. He lashed out a round-tripper in the first with two mates aboard and added a pair of singles later in the contest.

Bosu was on the hill for the winners while Duane Yeagley took over the mound duties for the Theaters, who were guilty of nine errors during the course of the fray.

Eleven runs were scored in a wild inning which saw the Theaters capture a temporary 6-5 lead. Grady's added another quintet of tallies in the second only to see that edge disappear as the Theaters rallied for four runs in the fourth.

Hits by John Oana, Bruderly and Hanna, coupled with an error, brought Grady's three more runs and the win in the sixth stanza.
